

HOSHIKO TOURNAMENT HISTORY

The tournament is named in honor of long-time Weld County residents Paul and Jean Hoshiko. As a young man, Paul was an exemplary 4-H member and, during his adult life, became an outstanding supporter of 4-H. Paul shared his passion for the program with his wife Jean who became a meritorious leader and 4-H supporter.

The Colorado 4-H Youth Development Program empowers more than 113,000 youth annually to reach their full potential through participation in 4-H clubs, school enrichment programs and individual studies. Areas of focus include nutrition, healthy lifestyle, youth governance, animal care, community service, science and technology, and much, much more! Go to www.colorado4h.org to learn more about the Colorado 4-H Program.
